Product Updates CT600E for Charities and CASCs: Claiming Your Exemption with WeFile Charities and Community Amateur Sports Clubs still have to file a corporation tax return — CT600E is how the exemption is claimed. Here is how WeFile supports every box from E5 to E200, why charity accounts must be filed with Companies House separately, and what happens on a long period of account.17 August 2026 18 min read	Dofollow
Product Updates CT600A and the s455 Charge: Filing Loans to Participators with WeFile Supplementary page CT600A is now fully supported in WeFile. Here is everything you need to know about the section 455 charge on directors' and shareholders' loans — how it works, the rate schedule up to 35.75%, how relief and deferred relief are handled, and how to file it start to finish.15 August 2026 16 min read	Dofollow
Filing Guide Companies House Late Filing Penalties: Amounts, Appeals and How to Avoid Them Companies House late filing penalties are automatic and start at £150 — rising to £1,500, or double for a second consecutive late year. Here are the exact amounts, how the deadline is measured, when an appeal can succeed, and what happens if you do not pay.12 August 2026 14 min read	Dofollow
