Rehabilitation services in India are essential for the recovery of individuals with physical disabilities. These services encompass a wide range of therapies, including physiotherapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy. The primary goal is to help patients regain functional independence and improve their quality of life. In India, the rehabilitation sector is growing rapidly, with an increasing number of specialized centers and professionals dedicated to this field. The availability of these services varies across different regions, with major cities offering more comprehensive care. The government and private sectors are working together to improve the infrastructure and funding for rehabilitation services, ensuring that all individuals have access to the care they need.
